Charming, Historic Gem

Discover one of the village's oldest cottages, a historic gem dating back to around 1840. This charming 2-level workers' cottage offers a unique blend of history and modern comfort, nestled in a community dedicated to laneway beautification and admired for its community gardens.

Highlights:

- 77sqm open-plan layout with well-defined spaces
- Kitchen and patio area, a rare feature for its period
- Beautiful exposed stonework and timber-clad ceilings
- Well-maintained kitchen, bathroom, and laundry fittings
- French doors and windows opening to the courtyard
- Established patio garden with a lush, green outlook
- Thoughtfully updated to preserve its era's charm
- Potential to further enhance its old-world appeal
- Set within a celebrated Sydney streetscape
- Plenty of room to add your own personal touch
