Quiet family sanctuary with irresistible poolside class

On a quiet period streetscape, this gorgeous 5-bedroom, 3-bath double-fronted Victorian presents an outstanding family lifestyle opportunity with its extended modern floor plan, first-class features and a spectacular poolside oasis. Beyond the picket-fenced landscaped garden and beautiful block-fronted facade, discover a sumptuous interior with soaring high ceilings and polished timber floors, comprising five large main bedrooms and versatile study/sixth bedroom, as well as a deluxe fully-tiled ensuite and WIR for the main, and two additional gorgeous bathrooms, all with stone-top vanities and a glossy, neutral colour scheme. Abundant natural light filters through wall-to-wall glazing into the enormous living and dining area featuring leafy and poolside garden outlooks to the kitchen detailing a striking stone and timber island, butlers pantry and a full complement of quality European appliances, including an ILVE oven. Double-glazed glass sliders open to reveal a fabulous sun-drenched alfresco deck, with established trees offering privacy in the warmer months, ideal for dining, entertaining and relaxing with family and friends by the solar-heated, fully-tiled pool. Further emphasising its family credentials is a first-level retreat/kids domain with a built-in toy chest, hydronic heating and split-system air conditioning, custom joinery, abundant storage (including roof access), plantation shutters, an outdoor shower, and the convenience of a large laundry with drying cupboard. Complete with off-street parking beyond an auto gate, this exceptional home is conveniently located close to High Street trams, Chapel Street and Prahran Market shopping and dining, trains and an array of excellent schools, with Albert Park Lake within a short stroll.
