In its current configuration the property features a large lounge and dining room, three generously proportioned carpeted bedrooms, an electric-equipped kitchen, and a laundry and bathroom with separate w/c. Outdoors features a level backyard with scope to add off-street parking. Georgetown village is a short distance away and it's an easy stroll to Waratah Park, Waratah Shopping Village and train station, and a great choice of public and Catholic primary schools as well as Callaghan College and St Philip's Christian College. Pets on application.
