PACKED WITH POTENTIAL

This charming heritage home located in the heart of Devonport is just waiting for some TLC. This home is currently set up as a duplex with dual living potential. The Western wing of the home does require renovation with the current owners having started the process with a new kitchen in place.

The house was originally a hotel in Strahan in the state's West before being brought to Devonport by sea in 1912. The property currently offers multiple living areas, two kitchens, and four bedrooms. Out in the yard you will find an additional studio and a single car garage.

The Eastern wing of the property is in good condition and is currently leased out on a non fixed term.

Situated in a sought-after location, this property is within close proximity to schools, shops, and public transport, making it convenient for everyday living. This property presents a fantastic opportunity for those looking to secure a piece of history while restoring it to its former glory.
