Tucked away in a prized Kensington pocket, this free standing renovated Edwardian is immaculately presented and offers exceptional city-fringe lifestyle with a mix of modern and contemporary style. Instantly alluring with its picket-fenced rose garden and decked verandah, the home's interior showcases entrance hall, three generous bedrooms (master with ensuite, all with built in robes), central bathroom with shower over bath, open plan living and dining complemented by a contemporary style kitchen complete with stone benchtops, ample storage and stainless steel appliances including gas cooking and dishwasher. Other features include ducted heating throughout, split system heating/cooling, ceiling fans, ornate fireplaces and decked entertaining area with a low maintenance courtyard to the rear. Instant access to the best Kensington has to offer including Macaulay Road/Bellair Street cafes and shops, primary schools, Moonee Ponds Creek Trail, as well as both Kensington and Macaulay train stations (two stops to the CBD).
