Oakleigh's northern quarter is widely regarded as one of the area's finest lifestyle precincts and here at its heart with an elite address is an unrivalled opportunity for greatness. Presented in fantastic condition, this elegant single-level residence offers rare potential to enrich and expand with a luxurious transformation on a sizable allotment enhanced by a superb north-facing orientation. A picturesque period façade with patterned brickwork opens through an entry corridor to a formal lounge & dining room, linking with a central kitchen before proceeding southward to the study and enclosed sunroom. This beautiful three-bedroom home is set to spark the imagination of discerning buyers with aspirations for a luxurious future lifestyle. Live comfortably now while planning for an architectural renovation and extension (STCA) in an esteemed family setting. Located across the road from Oakleigh Recreation Centre, sports fields, and Scotchmans Creek, this prized address places the cultural commons of Oakleigh station village within walking distance of the door.
