Offers Low $600,000's

Built in 1950 on a spacious 825sqm flat block right in heart of Silkstone, this mid-set home is perfect for a young family, investor or first-home buyer. This home is bursting with potential. Enter the home into the welcoming sunroom which leads through to the air-conditioned main living room with ornate cornicing. The entire home has been freshly painted inside and the hardwood floors have been lovingly restored and polished. High ceilings and fans throughout add to the airy spacious feel. The open plan kitchen and dining room complete with ceiling fan has been recently renovated with new oven and glass electric stove. The kitchen leads down a few steps to a handy second toilet and laundry room with new tub. The main bathroom has been completely renovated bringing a nice modern touch to the home. All 3 of the bedrooms are generously sized with ceiling fans. Out through the laundry door, enjoy the undercover back patio and fully fenced flat back yard with plenty of space for both kids and pets, complete with a separate 2 car garage and 2 car carport plus a large 6x3 metre garden shed built on a concrete slab. This property is fully fenced and boasts shade/ privacy louvres on most windows.
