Nature's Oasis: A Hinterland Retreat

Perched high on the outskirts of Maleny, this architecturally designed 4-bedroom home offers unrivalled views of the Glasshouse Mountains and Moreton Island.

Spanning 129 acres, this estate seamlessly blends timeless charm with contemporary elegance, creating the ultimate Queensland hinterland retreat.

Step inside to a home where natural light and panoramic vistas are at the forefront. The expansive living and dining areas, featuring vaulted ceilings and floor-to-ceiling glass, transition effortlessly onto a large verandah, perfect for immersing yourself in the breathtaking scenery.

Key Features include:

- Year-round comfort with split system air-conditioning, ceiling fans, and a central wood-burning fireplace
- Substantial water tanks, 37,000L & 18,000L
- Beautifully terraced, low-maintenance gardens with logging tracks throughout the property.
- Versatile Living Space: A separate large bedroom/rumpus room doubles as a potential second master suite, complete with bathroom.
- Sustainable Living: Primarily off-grid with solar system, backed by a grid connection and generator system.
- The 129-acre property is a haven for nature enthusiasts, offering perfect opportunities for wildlife conservation, bushwalking, horse riding, and bird watching.

Located just 10 minutes from Maleny's main street, 35 minutes from Sunshine Coast beaches, and 60 minutes from Brisbane airport, this unique home is perfect for those seeking a private residence or a luxurious weekend getaway. Don't miss out on this exceptional property.
