Every aspect of this property speaks quality and attention to detail.

The home has undergone various upscale renovations and the block has been lovingly tended. With a range of formal and informal living spaces, there is heaps of room for the family to spread out, or to entertain, and with abundant light and space ALL areas of the home feel superb.

The upstairs level could easily become a dedicated parent retreat, with king sized bedroom with harbor views, spa ensuite, and walk-in robe, as well as a generous office, landing, and small balcony to enjoy the view. Just add a kitchenette to the office/media room and it's all yours to enjoy, including breakfasts on the balcony and stunning water views from every room.

Unwind or party with friends and family in any or all of the downstairs living zones, or make the most of the private outdoor entertaining and lush garden.

Schools, shops, waterways, rivers, beaches and the city are within easy commuting distance, making this a lifestyle certainly worth pursuing.

This home is available for viewing by private appointment only. For your inspection or more information please contact Blair Scott on 0459 024 026.
