Untouched Edwardian Gem – A Canvas for Your Vision

In the heart of Elsternwick, this untouched Edwardian beauty is ready for its next chapter. Set on a generous 533m² garden allotment with a highly sought-after northwest aspect, this character-filled home is bursting with potential.

With 6 superior rooms, the flexible floor plan offers endless possibilities for a renovation or extension to truly make this space your own. The original charm remains intact, from period details to the deep, private garden, where mature trees and lush greenery frame the property, creating a peaceful retreat.

This is a rare opportunity to transform an Edwardian classic into a modern masterpiece, while still embracing its timeless elegance.

Perfectly positioned in an ultra-convenient Elsternwick location, this home is the ideal foundation for those seeking to create something special.

Seize the chance to unlock the full potential of this untouched gem!
