This large family home is beautifully maintained and offers a blend of space and style. Featuring four bedrooms, each with built-in wardrobes, two beautiful bathrooms, including an ensuite in the main, and two expansive living rooms, making it perfect for both family life and entertaining guests. The large, contemporary kitchen, accentuated by its sleek Corian finishes, 900mm appliances and generous storage is a chef's delight. With stunning bamboo floors to the open plan living area adding warmth and character to the home, while the second living space is a large, carpeted home theatre. Outdoors, sheltered entertaining areas and easy care paved patios and paths with minimal gardens completing this low maintenance property. This home is located in a popular well-established area close to forest and Parklands and just a short walk to the Rapids Landing primary school
