This freshly renovated home is situated in the beautifully presented Moorookyle Estate in Tarneit. It ticks all the boxes by being near a plethora of schooling, parks, the Melbourne Grand Mosque, Riverdale Village Shopping Centre and so much more. There are so many reasons why this home is perfect for a first home, investment, or something to downsize to comfortably. Boasting three cosy bedrooms all with oversized built-in robes accompanied by a master with ensuite, along with a central bathroom to service and provide every member of the family a great space to unwind and reset after a long day. As you walk through the home, you'll be welcomed to an ample-sized kitchen comprising generous cabinet and bench space, stainless steel appliances and a window splashback for a classy look, giving the chef in the family plenty to work with to prepare meals for friends and family. Flowing from the kitchen is the main living/dining area accompanied by an outdoor awning which provides an abundance of space for a quiet night in watching tv, hosting events for guests and having the bonus of a study nook space for the family member that works from home. This property also offers ducted heating, a reverse cycle split system, a double car carport with access via laneway, a gas-boosted solar hot-water system, freshly painted interior, newly laid carpet and upgraded lights throughout the entirety of the home, notch this in your calendar and inspect everything this home has to offer.
