This well maintained post-war home exudes charm from the moment you step inside. Situated in a highly sought after & leafy pocket of Holland Park West, this generously sized home will delight with its light filled spaces & superb floor plan. On offer here are three very spacious bedrooms, all with ceiling fans, polished timber floors and ample natural light. The master bedroom also boasts a large freestanding wardrobe & is oversized. The open-plan kitchen with ample bench space includes an island bench as well as a good amount of cabinetry & storage space. The back deck is a great space to unwind & host family events or entertain. This home also offers a good sized back yard with a private & leafy setting. Beautiful polished timber floors and the great layout will truly make you want to call this home sweet home. The outdoor areas have been thoughtfully designed for families with kids and there is ample storage space underneath all in a private and secure environment. Set in a tightly held pocket of popular Holland Park West and within minutes to schools, shops and the express busway. This lovely home has that warm homely feel but still lots of potential to add your own touch or modernise as you see fit. Don't miss your chance to secure this gorgeous home in a prime location.
