Discover the enduring charm of this classic 70s-built family home, on the market for the first time in 68 years. This cherished residence, with its warm and welcoming ambiance, features four bedrooms, 3 with built-in robes, a graceful sitting and dining room, and a family-friendly kitchen with a casual meals area. A central tiled bathroom, and a large laundry with a second shower, vanity and 2nd WC add to the home's functional appeal. The property also boasts a generous garage with a wide side driveway, providing ample off-street parking. The north-facing elevated garden allotment of 557m² is perfect for outdoor entertaining and family activities. Located in a serene residential neighbourhood, this home is close to Caulfield Grammar School and the vibrant Elsternwick village, where you can enjoy a variety of cafes, boutiques, and restaurants. With trains, trams, and bus services just a short stroll away, the entire city of Melbourne is at your fingertips. This home is not just a place to live but a sanctuary where new memories can be made. Experience the blend of history, comfort, and prime location. Schedule your viewing today and step into a home where every corner tells a story.
