Modern Family Masterpiece, Palatial And Impressive

In an exclusive pocket, this extraordinary home makes a statement with its immediate sense of grandeur and over approx. 550 sqm of indoor living. Designed by Paul Meyer Design and built by Ian MacDonald Homes Pty Ltd, it rests on a generous approx. 1,120 sqm backing onto the Avondale Golf Club and presenting buyers with a vast array of accommodation options with spaces for families of all configurations and at all ages and stages. Inside be greeted by a marble floored entry overhung by a glamorous Murano glass chandelier. Gracious formal zones give way to expansive casual areas, a meals area, Miele appointed luxury kitchen and out to the generous rear terraces. Up to seven bedrooms are on offer here including a ground floor guest retreat with adjoining bathroom and the choice of an office or 7th bed. The triple lock up garage is an added bonus with ample space for storage. Pamper the family in a prime setting that is minutes to the bus, walking trails, Pymble Public School, Pymble Ladies College and further elite schools.
