Peaceful Location

Nestled in the banks of Musketts Hill, is this quaint 3 bedroom colorbond home. The living areas are located on the lower level, with entry points out onto a timber verandah and a sizeable semi enclosed timber deck, perfect for those weekend BBQs or alfresco dining. The kitchen does need completion however it is ready to finish – add your own taste and décor. The bathroom and laundry are also on the lower level while the upper level has three bedrooms with built in alcoves in each room and a second sitting area or study. With 10 acres of native bush and pasture that is fenced on three boundaries, 2 dams, and stunning views, this property is ready to move on with. The property is elevated some 200 metres above sea level and is located in a rural setting. The views over the Huon River and Mountains beyond are a delight and the easterly aspect ensures loads of natural light and sun. Just 30 minutes to the Hobart CBD and close to local schools, shops and services for your convenience. Franklin is a peaceful town enjoyed by many locals who rarely leave the area. Enquire today for more information on this quaint, low maintenance property.
