This beautiful period style home combines classic charm with an unbeatable corner location. As you step inside, you'll be captivated by the spaciousness and character of this home. High ceilings and ornate features throughout most of the home add a touch of elegance and warmth, enhancing its period charm. The property boasts three generously sized bedrooms plus sleepout, providing ample space for the entire family. Comfortable large lounge room with split system heating and cooling. The spacious kitchen and meals area is a hub for family gatherings, ready to cater for all your needs. The neat family bathroom has a bath and vanity with the separate laundry also offering the shower and toilet. Outside, the private rear yard provides a serene space the keen gardener or simply unwinding with a good book. The property sits on a generous 1012m² block with single vehicle garage, rainwater tanks and side road access. This property is a home filled with potential and located in an excellent area of Nhill. Don't miss this exceptional opportunity to own a true beauty from yesteryear and create your dream home.
