Experience the perfect blend of luxury and nature in this beautifully renovated 4-bedroom split-level home, nestled in a tranquil bush setting. This stunning property offers modern amenities and serene surroundings, making it an ideal retreat for you and your family. This home features a grand master bedroom complete with a private balcony, walk-in robe, and ensuite bathroom, providing a personal haven of comfort. The living area boasts raked ceilings that create a spacious and airy atmosphere, while the gorgeous blackbutt floors throughout add sophistication and warmth. Start your day with morning coffee as you watch kookaburras and other wildlife from your doorstep, embracing the natural beauty around you. With plenty of storage in the 2.5 car garage plus an additional carport, you'll have ample space for all your needs. Conveniently located just a short drive from Terrigal Beach, vibrant cafes, restaurants, and excellent local schools, this home offers both tranquility and accessibility. Immaculately maintained and move-in ready, you can immediately start entertaining friends and family without any additional work. Don't miss out on the opportunity to own this beautiful home where luxury meets nature.
