This period classic reveals a combination of previously updated spaces and authentic retro elements throughout a four bedroom floor-plan that leads to a garden backdrop defined by a north-facing aspect, significant depth and sensational potential, STCA. Entirely functional today, offering exceptional possibilities tomorrow, its traditional living and dining areas surround a kitchen that retains its original cabinetry while the four bedrooms share a serviceable bathroom. A study space, separate laundry, undeniable character and outstanding scope complete the current indoor profile before the block delivers its outstanding size, garage and additional parking. Proximity to Newport Lakes Reserve, Loft Reserve, Challis Street shops and Mason Street's vibrant hub ensures this property represents a hugely positive project!
