Charming 3-Bedroom Brick Home with Endless Renovation Potential

Welcome Home to 164 St Anns Street, Nowra.

Quietly tucked away behind an established treescape facade, occupying a substantial 695sqm block, you will find this (almost) true to the era 3 bedroom brick home. Full of old world charm, the home is entirely bordered with windows that overlook the lush green park like surrounds, delivering a wonderful sense of peace, privacy and potential. While true to its era, the home invites your personal touch to restore its old-world charm. Unexpectedly spacious and filled with natural light, the layout includes three spacious bedrooms, an oversized living room, and a separate dining area flowing from the kitchen. Located just 1.5km from the Nowra CBD, this property provides a peaceful retreat within a 5-minute drive of all local amenities, making it the perfect canvas for your renovation dreams.
