Nicholl and Young Property welcomes you to 165 Lindsay Road, a residence that exudes a unique energy beyond its features, a feeling you can only truly understand by experiencing it yourself. Nestled in the serene Buderim bushland, this charming home offers a delightful blend of comfort, character, and natural beauty.

Inside, you'll find three bedrooms and one bathroom. The heart of the home is the fully renovated kitchen, which boasts a stunning slab timber bench-top, a modern induction cooktop, and a dishwasher. Timber features throughout the home harmonise beautifully with the natural setting, while a Scandinavian fireplace and reverse cycle air conditioning ensure that the house remains cozy during winter and comfortably cool in summer.

The property is set on a generous 1105 square meter block, with additional space afforded by the surrounding undeveloped bushland. There are numerous outdoor areas for you to enjoy, including spaces ideal for garden beds, outdoor dining, or quiet nature retreats. A standout feature is the landing beyond the carport, where you can light a fire pit and savor spectacular sunsets over the Blackall Ranges.

Conveniently located, the property is just 5 minutes from Buderim Village, 10 minutes from Maroochydore, and under 15 minutes to the stunning beaches of the coast. The neighbourhood is known for its friendly and considerate residents, making it a wonderful place to call home.

Overall, this house strikes a perfect balance between practicality and coziness, offering a blend of character, charm, and simple beauty. Contact us today to arrange a viewing and experience the special atmosphere of 165 Lindsay Road for yourself.
