Sea breeze and summer salt introduce this spectacular display of low-maintenance living nestled opposite Capel Sound's sprawling coastline amidst a thriving micro-community, whilst this devoted two bedroom unit reveals unsuspecting space and contemporary updates, emanating a cool and calm atmosphere. Set beyond the sprawling shoreline of Port Phillip Bay, an immaculately kept frontage welcomes light-laden living where crisp clean finishes and fresh carpets invite a heightened sense of immediate livability, offering an ultimately versatile opportunity for the young and old across a single level of functional living. Enjoy a home filled with love and laughter, as an immediate entertaining domain overflows across sun-soaked space perfect for sharing in those long summer afternoons as they blend to twilight. Generous stone benchtops, glass cooktop and breakfast bar anchor the kitchen as the heart of the home balances two bright and breezy bedrooms. Built in study nook for those who work from home. Refresh and unwind in an oversized shower with a rain shower head and bright coastal atmosphere, adorned with European-style laundry, 17 solar panels line the roof and new energy efficient hot water heater makes the cost of living in this beautiful spot next to nothing. Relax with an established sense of security amongst a complex of units, where crisp white timber louvres, single lock-up garage with newly installed colorbond door and security system present a personal haven mere paces from the glistening shoreline. Soak in the serenity of seaside living with uncompromised convenience delivering perfect proximity to recreational and retail delight just a short stroll up the road.
