Immaculately presented and located for lifestyle, this chic freestanding charmer displays a fresh interior design that embraces easy living with style and privacy. It makes a very user-friendly retreat that takes full advantage of the space, air crossflow and natural light, with a layout that integrates easily with a sundrenched landscaped courtyard at the rear. This classically appointed residence is also perfectly positioned for enjoying Leichhardt's many attractions and is within easy walking distance to Norton Street's cafes, shops and restaurants, and just a few minutes to Annandale's village life. Fresh and airy interiors feature many retained period details. A user-friendly layout with separate lounge and dining areas. A maintenance-free rear courtyard and entertainment space. Three bedrooms include a third bed/office/living at the rear. Stylish stone kitchen with induction cooking and walk-in pantry. Two renovated bathrooms, one has a deluxe freestanding tub. Large attic storage space, air-conditioning and solar panels. Easy access to Market Place shopping, schools and parks.
