Practicality meets charm

Welcome to 17 Myall Street, Tea Gardens - a charming residence perfectly positioned to offer both comfort and convenience.

The residence exudes timeless charm, boasting period elements like expansive, shaded verandas that beckon for leisure and al fresco living. Internally, the house has undergone a thoughtful renovation to align with modern lifestyle requirements without compromising its inherent character.

The generous proportions of high ceilings and roomy interiors contribute to an inviting ambiance. All bedrooms have spacious built-in wardrobes. Fans throughout the home compliment afternoon summer breezes.

Practicality meets charm with a fully fenced yard ensuring privacy and security, complemented by a convenient double garage. Off-street parking is all taken care of, with ample space for storing cars, boats, caravans and trailers.

Whether you're looking for a family home or a prime location for your next investment property, 17 Myall Street is sure to exceed your expectations.

This property is not just a home, it's a canvas for your imagination. The substantial land size and strategic location open up a world of development possibilities as well. Envision creating an additional bespoke outdoor entertaining and living space or explore the options of developing another home or duplex at the rear of the block.

It's an investor's dream, offering the unique chance to tailor a property that truly stands out in Tea Gardens.
