This stunning Art Deco home offers enviable space in a location hard to beat. Open plan lounge and dining room opens onto a sunny North facing entertainer's patio for relaxed gatherings with friends, while a bright sunroom or home office overlooks the great sized, low maintenance rear yard. The home offers two generously sized bedrooms with ceiling fans and built in robes, fully renovated kitchen with near new appliances, integrated dishwasher, and oversized breakfast bar. The central bathroom includes a shower and bath in addition to the separate laundry and toilet. This well-maintained home is complete with a double garage and ducted heating throughout. Set in a tranquil locale yet moments from local shopping precincts including High Street, Northcote and Station Street, Fairfield while also offering public transport within walking distance. Within walking distance to Northcotes newly opened Aquatic and Recreation Centre and Yarra Parklands. This charming home sure is a beauty and wont last long!
