This Californian Bungalow style home has a pleasant street appeal with a well maintained front garden which will automatically draw you to investigate the home further. With the traditional features such as jarrah floors, open fireplace and mantel piece all in quality condition. Decorative styled ceilings and feature concrete rendered walls adorn the living and dining rooms. Recently renovated kitchen and bathroom offer all the modern conveniences and the large open laundry has heaps of room for an extra fridge/freezer. This home does make you feel like you are surrounded by pure excellence with all of its features. Additionally to the main home is a great shed which could easily be converted to an art studio, yoga room or even a sleep out for the adult kids. With the extra-large allotment of 1,140sqm there is plenty of space still to be utilized for either a great veggie patch or additional storage space. Dual driveways allow for plenty of car parking space! This is a property that will not disappoint when you inspect. Please call Team Alby 0499 015 552 to arrange your immediate inspection.
