A mid-century profile, versatile interiors and an excellent position provide the perfect platform for lifestyle success with this three bedroom home enviably positioned to Elder Street Reserve, Watsonia train station and shops, Diamond Valley shopping and well-regarded schools. On an elevated 557m² (approx.) block with extensive north-east facing gardens that families will love, you can plan the next iteration of your new lifestyle. Make the most of the existing home and renovate to make it shine, build a brand-new home with enough space for a pool, STCA. Either way, this long-held home with its spacious bedrooms complemented by a neat bathroom, sundrenched living room, original kitchen/meals, separate laundry and versatile studio/shed promises much for the future. With ducted heating, split system air-conditioning, central alarm plus off-street parking for two, inspection will impress. Kaylah Guerra & Brett Schembri | Ray White Macleod
