Fabulous family focus coupled with a brilliantly low maintenance lifestyle meet in this chic Edwardian residence in an undeniably desirable position. Illuminated spaces within begin in the voluminous open plan living & dining domain complemented by the kitchen with Caesarstone benches, stainless steel appliances & walk-in pantry. Further perfecting the casual family allure is the living area with double doors revealing equally attractive outdoor dimensions with a pergola for year round living & mod grass for the good life. Two character filled double bedrooms with built-in wardrobes & a sumptuous main bathroom with a frameless open shower & a bath concludes the downstairs. Designed with parents in mind, the ambient main bedroom is enhanced by picturesque views, a generous walk-through wardrobe, stunning ensuite & a separate nursery/study nearby heightens the flexibility. A car space, zoned heating/cooling, split systems & Shugg windows throughout illustrates the effortless ease with which this home meets every modern need within immediate proximity to Ripponlea Village, transport & private schools.
