Family entertainer with enchanting bushland outlook

Serenely positioned at the end of a tranquil cul-de-sac in the leafy, family-friendly suburb of Wheeler Heights, this impressive entertainer opens to the rear to embrace an expansive bushland outlook. Enjoy a high level of privacy and a sense of escapism in this flawless home that features bright, open interiors that unfold into spectacular outdoor entertaining spaces, with leafy outlooks at every turn, whilst a luxurious master bedroom, a retreat-style guest bedroom, and an adventure-style backyard are stand-out features that will be appreciated by families. Serene yet central, this home is just steps from idyllic walking and bike trails around Narrabeen Lake, convenient to local schools and shops on Veterans Parade, and a short drive to beaches and lifestyle hubs in Dee Why and Collaroy.

- Spacious living and dining with an open free-flowing design
- Bi-fold doors open to entertainer's deck with bushland outlook
- Sunny elevated aspect to the rear, elegant hardwood floors
- Family sitting room with open fireplace connects to front deck
- Stone-topped modern kitchen with electric cooking, dishwasher
- Two air-con units, three bedrooms include access onto balconies
- King-sized master bedroom with walk-in robe and private balcony
- Retreat-style bedroom works well for guests or teenagers with separate entrance
- Tropical garden is private and ideal for family fun with fully automated sprinklers
- Family bathroom with rainfall shower, bathtub and skylight
- Extensive under-house storage, solar panels, lock-up garage
- Quiet and safe family-focused cul-de-sac location
