Hidden away, enjoying a cascade of warm sunlight and a magical garden outlook, this two bedroom storybook residence presents a rear position on the allotment that is secure, private and quiet; alongside an enhanced interior with on-trend finishes. Set to delight with its white wash cottage-inspired façade, the single-storey property also showcases solid Tasmanian Oak floors, European Volakas marble benchtops and a luminous atrium-style light-well for the purpose of additional ambiance. Meanwhile, easily cook at home with the stylish well-appointed chef's kitchen; fully-equipped in Bosch electric oven/dishwasher, Franke gas cooktop/sink, generous breakfast island comprising a waterfall finish and ample push-to-open cabinetry with pantry pullouts. Designed to maximise space is the airy dining/family domain, as it leads to an outdoor entertainer's sanctuary. Featuring a paved patio, OSP via rear ROW/roller door, plus a combination of low-maintenance colourful garden beds. Take up accommodation in the carpeted bedrooms fitted with BIRs and serviced by the stunning central bathroom starring a soaking tub and Japanese handmade tiles. Further highlighted by ducted heating/cooling, concealed European laundry, XL utility shed and bespoke block out curtains. Enviably positioned within a community friendly street, just steps to South Preston supermarkets, and cosmopolitan High Street. Moments to popular eateries/rooftop bars, CBD trams, boutique shops, cinemas, bowling and iconic Penders Park.
