Occupying a 512sqm parcel of land on a tranquil, jacaranda-lined street, this recently refreshed residence sets an ideal scene for family life, with great proximity to every amenity and ample room to grow. The extremely versatile property captures abundant natural light with its north to rear aspect and includes a teen retreat or home office space set quietly to the rear of the block. Ready to enjoy, with scope for adding value, the home lies within 1.5km of elite Strathfield schools, lush parks, city transport and busy retail hubs. Double-brick bungalow with flexible floorplan
Generous living room with ornamental fireplace
Functional dine-in kitchen with s/steel fittings
Light-filled dining room or casual family room
Three peaceful bedrooms, two with built-in robes
Practical independent teen retreat with guest w/c
Large separate laundry and tidy tiled bathroom
Double lock-up garage plus off-street parking
Spacious, low-maintenance front and rear gardens
North Strathfield station and soon to be Metro
