Welcome to 19 Hooley Rd Midvale, this 511m2 lot with long term tenants that want to stay for longer if need be, the house is old but still has some life left in it before it eventually gets knocked down to support some new dwellings. There is a lot of buzz around at the moment with a new private hospital on the horizon and other major infrastructure projects on the go as well. 2 bedroom + sleep out. Original timber floors. Wood stove + open fire place. Plenty of parking. Opposite snow Bennett park. 2 minutes from Midvale primary. 10 minute walk to Midland gate. Easy access to commercial precinct. Real budget pleaser on offer here with the long term sight to develop the land and build some new dwellings, there is not a lot on offer within the market place at the moment and homes like these with future development potential are flying out the window.
