Illustrating timeless elegance, spectacular sophistication and architectural finesse, this striking family residence enjoys a commanding position overlooking Cato Park in one of Hawthorn East's most desired residential pockets. Delivering a lavish ensemble of living and entertaining options, the home features an impressive grand entrance foyer, formal living with adjoining veranda, elegant dining room with OFP, additional informal dining, 2 casual family areas, billiard room, powder room and conservatory. The home is further enhanced by an epicurean stainless steel kitchen with black granite bench tops, luxurious Main bedroom/retreat (with en suite, separate spa bath suite, 2 separate dressing rooms and large private balcony) as well as 3 additional upstairs bedrooms served by a double vanity bathroom with long bath. For stylish outdoor entertaining, the home provides a paved alfresco area along with a lagoon-style in-ground pool and spa. Also included is additional ground floor guest accommodation with en suite and lounge. The home also features secure double lock-up garage, separate laundry, abundant storage throughout, monitored security system, water storage tanks, heating and air-conditioning throughout, and gas heating to the pool. Situated within metres of Tooronga Village, the home is only minutes walk to Bialik College and less than ten minutes drive to Scotch College. Excellent access to the Monash Freeway.
