Kitchen is sparkling white and well placed in order to take in the days activities, lined in stone, good pantry space, bulkhead ceilings and plenty of drawer storage makes this an area that you will love. If you feel like going on holidays, then this home will be ideal, as there is a resort style solar heated pool, outdoor bar, and sunbaking deck. The pool zone is above the garage, and below the rumpus, created with privacy and north facing light in mind. 3 garage spaces in total, there is a double garage, as well as a single lock-up garage that is connected to the house, walk through to home office on the very lower level.
