Get ready to fall head over heels, for this new listing is so much more than a house. It embodies that elusive feeling of home-sweet-home we're all searching for. Beautifully maintained and updated over the decades, the property offers a big, contemporary lifestyle, with room to move and grow. Set on a whopping 1,817m² just past the Bendigo Golf Club, it has a park-like landscape that's perfect for children and pets to enjoy. And if you're not already a green thumb, there's inspiration aplenty here! The sprawling floor plan features three huge living zones, four bedrooms, two bathrooms and a wide entrance foyer. Step inside to discover high ceilings, sliding doors, soft carpet and polished floorboards. There's a formal L-shaped dining/lounge at one end of the home, and a cedar-lined family room at the other, complete with wood heater for winter warmth and charm. The heart of the home is the open-plan kitchen/dining/family/sunroom. The original country-style kitchen is a keeper, with its painted timber cabinets, timber-topped island bench, and pistachio-green upright stove. Two bedrooms have built-in robes, while the main has a walk-through-robe to the ensuite. Both bathrooms are in top order, with neutral tones and fittings. A sliding glass door in the living room opens to a back porch. Step down and into your very own private sanctuary, surrounded by tall deciduous trees, gums, shrubs and an impressive lawn. There's also 78m² of shedding for your storage and workshop needs. The location has just gotten better in recent years, thanks to the Epsom Village Shopping Centre and train station mere minutes away. Is this your new forever home? Act now and bring the family to a swift inspection.
