Prepare yourself for a visual delight as you discover the tastefully presented three-bedroom courtyard home at 19 Tuscanny Way, Woodcroft. With its neatly manicured exterior and tidy interiors, this property is an absolute treat for those seeking simplicity combined with comfort.

Constructed circa 1994, the property sits majestically on a corner position, ideally orientated from south to north. The house has been designed with an open-plan living area that creates a harmonious connection between different spaces. The floors, adorned with timber-look finish, add an elegant rustic charm.

The property's crowning glory is perhaps the master bedroom. Imagine waking up to the morning sun peeping through the endearing bay window with a view of the peaceful manicured garden, upholding the house's overall classic feel.

A key appeal here is the kitchen, which effortlessly blends in with the open-plan layout. It comes equipped with a gas cooktop and stainless appliances. This kitchen is destined to inspire some wonderful culinary adventures.

Step outside onto a large entertaining area surrounded by landscaped gardens. This space is perfect for alfresco dining or hosting vibrant gatherings with friends.
