Nestled in the heart of central Werribee, just a short stroll from Werribee station, this charming three-bedroom home exudes the timeless character of yesteryear while situated in a prime location. The kitchen, thoughtfully designed to overlook the backyard, is perfect for getting dinner made while watching the kids and pets play. The beautiful hardwood floors throughout the home add warmth and elegance, while the spacious bedrooms provide comfort and tranquility. The outdoor area is equally inviting, featuring a covered entertainment space that overlooks a vast rear yard. With the block being 666sqm (approx.), there is ample room for further development, subject to relevant approvals, offering endless possibilities for expansion or creating a personalized outdoor retreat. Adding to the home's appeal is a large lock-up garage, ensuring secure parking and extra storage space. Its convenient location means that schools, shops, and the train station are all so close by, making daily errands and commutes effortless. This property is a rare find, it's a classic charm in a sought-after location. Call for an inspection today and discover the potential of this delightful home.
