Fall in love at first sight with this beautifully presented four-bedroom classic, which takes pride of place in a coveted lifestyle location footsteps from Coburg Hill Shopping Centre. Beyond the serene front porch, which reflects the home's vintage character, this period beauty opens onto a welcoming hallway introducing a charming formal lounge area, enhanced in character with a decorative high ceiling and bathed in natural light. The positive appeal continues into the open-plan meals/kitchen area, which enjoys pride of place in the heart of the home and delights with its lengthy benchtops, plentiful storage, spacious nature and light-filled appearance. Three generous bedrooms are zoned for privacy at the front of the home with a central main bathroom, while a fourth bedroom at the rear links with the bright sunroom to create an excellent sanctuary for the privacy-craving teenager. A large backyard with a storage shed and workshop area attached to the rear of the lock-up garage is your canvas to create something special, and although the home's current-day picture is one of immediate comfort and enjoyment, there's also scope to enhance the interior with a modern touch. Complete with solid timber floorboards that lay hidden beneath the carpeted floors, separate laundry and split-system heating/cooling in the kitchen, this character-rich home enjoys outstanding access to Reservoir West Primary School, Coburg High School, local cafes, Gilbert Road trams, Coburg Lake and the Merri Creek Trail.
