NEW TO MARKET

Step into this charming 1955-built California Style Bungalow, nestled in the highly sought-after suburb of Alfred Cove. Enjoy the superb location with easy access to transportation, shopping complexes, sporting centers, parks, health facilities, schools, cafes, and restaurants. Be greeted by the large entrance adorned with jarrah floorboards, ornate cornices, and skirting boards that grace this beautiful home throughout. This residence features three well-sized bedrooms, each with generous windows that flood the rooms with natural light. The kitchen is a culinary delight, perfect for any chef or entertainment enthusiast. With plenty of cupboard and bench space, a breakfast bar, and modern appliances, it's ideal for family and friend gatherings. Adjacent to the kitchen, the dining area flows seamlessly into the outdoors through large bifold French doors and connects to the cozy family room. This open space is perfect for day-to-day living and special moments with loved ones. The north-facing outdoor entertaining area is substantial, featuring a pergola and paved surfaces. Enjoy low-maintenance gardens and a well-grassed area, giving you more time to relax and savour life. The shared family bathroom is designed with a neutral tone, offering a large bathtub and ample cupboard space. Features: • Bore • Timber floorboards • Ornate cornices and skirtings • 3 generous bedrooms • Large outdoor entertaining area Seize the opportunity to own this wonderful home by contacting Jenny Bradshaw to discuss a viewing appointment.
