Nestled in the vibrant heart of Elwood, this two-storey free standing property is an exciting opportunity for creative minds. A space of untapped potential, it offers a versatile floor plan with a large living area, kitchen, and two adaptable rooms on the ground floor. Upstairs, six diverse spaces await your imagination to transform them into anything from tranquil bedrooms to dynamic workspaces. The expansive undercover alfresco and vast courtyard beckon for imaginative outdoor living, perfect for entertainment or quiet enjoyment. Moments from local cafes, parks, beaches, and the bustling hubs of Ormond Road and Glen Huntly Road, this property promises to blend convenience with endless creative possibilities. The existing structure of the property offers both convenience and architectural character, setting the tone for an inspired transformation within. With the foundational elements already in place, you're poised to focus on customising the interiors to your exact specifications, making this opportunity a unique blend of ease and potential, where your vision for a dream home can be realized with creativity and style. Note: Previous floorplan shows the original design prior to the alterations.
