Perfect central location with an immaculately presented three bedroom home is the perfect choice for your family or company. The property features a lovely private back yard with an undercover entertaining area with access into the back off the garage for extra space or boat storage if needed. The undercover patio opens off the living area. The kitchen and dining area have ample room for everyone, and the kitchen has plentiful storage. A well-positioned and good sized laundry is also a feature. At the front of the home is a spacious living room. Air-conditioning services all three bedrooms and along with one large system in the main living area and there are ceiling fans fitted throughout the home. The whole main living area is tiled with carpet in each of the bedrooms. The spacious master bedroom offers built in robe and an en-suite. The three remaining bedrooms have full sized built-in robes as well. Sitting on a private corner lot the home has great street appeal. The home has high timber fences for extra privacy.
