This newly renovated 2 bedroom cottage is located in the Idyllic town of Moss Vale. Upon entering the property via the covered front porch into the lounge room you are greeted with high ceilings that are found through out the property. From the lounge room you seamlessly flow onto the dining area. Stepping down to the light filled Kitchen with timber island & large windows overlooking the back deck & garden. The well equip kitchen features a four burner gas range, stainless steel dishwasher and original timber floors that are featured all through the property. The spacious combined bathroom and laundry with walk in shower is generous in size and conveniently located at the rear of the property off the kitchen. Outside is a fully fenced and private yard with established gardens plus rear lane access. The little gem of a cottage is walking distance to schools and Moss Vale's town centre.
