A private poolside property with an open fireplace, a wood heater, and a striking sense of warmth, this is a home for all seasons on a sweeping corner block. Welcome to a solid single-level residence in a family-friendly location walking distance to John Paul College and less than 5 minutes' drive to Long Island Beach and Bayside Shopping Centre. This is a tranquil home with an earthy energy courtesy of internal brickwork, overhead beams, and rich engineered Spotted Gum flooring. Delivering a modern kitchen, 16 solar panels, timber flooring, fresh landscaping, new rear fencing, and more. A spacious sunken lounge with the wood heater and windows on three sides captures beautiful natural light from sunrise to sunset. A second living/dining room enjoys the open fireplace, while the kitchen features stainless steel appliances including a gas cooktop. The fully fenced allotment is private, with a serene pool area, a covered garden terrace, and flat lawn for the kids and pets. Other features include a double carport, split system heating/cooling, garden storage, and an accessible location within easy reach of the Frankston CBD, Kananook Station, Peninsula Link, and more.
