Embrace Tranquil Living in the Heart of Greenwith!

Located on a prime allotment in a dress circle location within Greenwith, this meticulously maintained four-bedroom family home sits on a substantial lot size of 693sqm (approximate) boasting a wide frontage with valuable side access for a boat, trailer or caravan. With a blend of spacious interiors and captivating outdoor spaces, it offers an ideal setting for creating cherished memories.

In the heart of the home lies a magnificent crisp white kitchen, featuring gas cooktop and oven, breakfast bar, walk-in pantry and ample bench space. The open plan family meals area, along with a separate formal living and dining room, catering effortlessly to the needs of a growing family. The master bedroom boasting a walk-in robe, built-in robe and a renovated ensuite, while three additional good-sized bedrooms provide great accommodation options.

Step through the sliding doors from the family area to discover a captivating outdoor entertainment area highlighted by an expansive undercover entertaining area. This space provides ample room for hosting gatherings, while the spacious rear yard offers freedom for children and pets to roam.

While this plus-sized interior with high quality finishes and an intuitive layout is undeniably impressive, the outdoor zones continue to set the bar high. Alongside the double garage with internal entry and remote access is a gated driveway for extra cars, trailers or caravans. A garden shed and easy-care landscaping complete your dream home in Greenwith.

Impeccably renovated and beautifully presented with high-quality finishing's throughout, this home will impress even the most discerning of buyers. Boasting timber-inspired Herringbone floor tiles and ample natural light, entertaining family and friends will be high on your list.
