Charming Elevated Home in Elanora

Welcome to this family home nestled in a serene, elevated corner of Elanora. This 2-storey, 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom, and 2-car garage house on a 600sqm block is perfect for families looking for space and tranquility. This property is a must see.

Enter through the expansive deck, where you can enjoy peaceful views and Queensland's pleasant weather throughout the year. This deck extends across the front of the house, offering additional living space, complete with a fridge and kitchenette. Step inside to the open-plan living area with its high ceilings and abundant natural light. The kitchen, dining, and living areas are all designed to make the most of the lush green views over Elanora's rolling hills.

The bedrooms in this home are generously sized and thoughtfully laid out, offering three bedrooms upstairs and a downstairs teenager or guest retreat. The bedrooms have built in robes, the downstairs retreat with its own bathroom, bar area and separate entrance. This property also has a double electric lock up garage and additional car spaces in front, providing plenty of room for your vehicles and excellent built in storage in the back of the garage. The yard is fully fenced, perfect for kids and pets to enjoy.

Located in a quiet street, this property is conveniently close to schools, shops, and public transport. The stunning beaches of the Gold Coast are just a short drive away, offering endless opportunities for relaxation and recreation.
