Countless opportunities and main road exposure with close proximity to the interchange of the M7 & M12. Potential to subdivide the property. The property has three homes and a workshop with separate power (11 bedrooms/4 bathrooms) Consider the property as a joint venture with a friend or family member, ideal for those looking to share the costs and benefits of property ownership. The three homes offer a range of living options, from a spacious family home to cozy retreats for guests or extended family members. The separate workshop provides additional storage or the potential for a home-based business. With its prime location and adaptable layout, this property presents a rare opportunity for investors, developers, and families alike to secure a valuable asset with endless possibilities. Don't miss out on this exceptional chance to capitalize on the growth of the area and create a unique living or business arrangement that suits your needs.
