It's Addressed: Situated on a generous 534sqm block with a north-facing backyard, 209 Cheltenham Road offers convenience and potential. This wide-fronted single storey family home is just moments from an expansive employment hub, with the 828 and 979 bus stops out front and easy access to Eastlink. Families will appreciate the proximity to popular Parkmore Shopping Centre, Chandler Park Primary School, and being in the catchment for Keysborough Secondary College. The home's facade showcases retro art-deco inspiration with a long paved driveway secured by a front boundary fence and lock-up gate. The landscaped front yard features a lush lawn, trees, and hardy plants, creating a welcoming atmosphere. A covered carport leads to an oversized double lock-up garage with additional storage space. The rendered exterior is complemented by a stacker stone finish to the lower quarter. Ready to move in or offering a range of renovation possibilities, the home features fresh paint to internal walls, ceilings and the exterior. Inside, enjoy the comfort of a ducted heating system and a split system AC. The easy maintenance backyard and polished timber hardwood flooring throughout are practical features, while natural light filters through the windows, creating a bright and airy feel. The original kitchen offers an abundance of shaker-style cabinetry, solid timber countertops with a laminate finish, and a tiled splash-back to the perimeter. Equipped with a 600mm electric oven, gas burner cooktop and mixer tap ware, the kitchen combines functionality with a touch of vintage charm. There are three bedrooms with a continuation of timber flooring. The main bedroom features built-in robe storage. A generously-sized laundry room adds to the home's convenience. The main bathroom has enjoyed some upgrades, including full-height wall tiles, a frameless shower and a modern vanity unit. Contact us today to arrange your exclusive inspection.
