'Beautiful', 'charming' and 'intriguing' are some of the adjectives that have been used to describe 'The Fisherwoman's Cottage'. The current owner has held the property for over twenty years. For the past couple of years they have been running the property as a successful vintage airbnb, with each room appropriately themed. This property is now being sold fully furnished with everything needed to continue this use. Recently painted and featuring a new roof, this property boasts timber floors throughout and is ready to go for a tranquil, seaside lifestyle. While the home could benefit from some further renovations, its tidy and well-maintained condition makes it move-in ready. There is the possibility of lifting the building to obtain some bay views and improve garage access although off-street parking does currently exist.. Truly worth a visit, even if not currently buying if just to enjoy the brief step back into the last century. To enquire, please email or call 1300 815 051 and enter code 3466
