Lifestyle and Luxury Personified

Welcome to Lammermoor Hill where the Coastal Island and Harbour Views are at their best .

Enter this outstanding 3 level home at the middle floor; amazing coastal views as the backdrop catch your eye. Wonderful timber floors and large open living and dining.

The galley style kitchen with light stone benches and a big gas cooker will be the catalyst for great food and the private deck and pool are so close and inviting. At the other end there's an amazing enclosed BBQ area complete with state of the art appliances, an office /bedroom and a bathroom beautifully tiled to the ceiling.

Upstairs is the house heads retreat with a luxurious ensuite large bedroom with views to die for and a private sitting room and deck. A moment of peace overlooking the harbour wouldn't hurt.

The lower level is a mixture of accommodation and games.

Three large bedrooms spacious open living and another private deck add to the lifestyle choices and the main bathroom is also here. There's a sneaky little room that currently houses darts tournaments and a workshop tucked at the rear.

All of this enhanced by the high ceilings a mix of timber and tiled floors and great use of picture windows to bring outside in.

The yard has been carefully terraced and the colorful gardens also have a range of fruit trees and lawn areas
