Timeless Charm

Nestled in a quiet location just under 1km from the serene Bay Beach, this charming property offers a blend of character and opportunity. With a four-minute drive into Cowes' main street, you'll have convenient access to shops, cafes, and local attractions while enjoying the peaceful surroundings.

The home itself showcases old-world charm, featuring high ceilings and original timber floors throughout, offering a solid foundation for restoration. With three well-proportioned bedrooms and one bathroom, it's a perfect canvas to modernize while preserving its timeless appeal.

At the rear of the property, the expansive entertainer's deck overlooks the generous backyard, providing an ideal space for outdoor dining, gatherings, or simply relaxing. The 650sqm block is low maintenance, allowing for easy care without sacrificing space for gardening or additional landscaping.

Ready to be restored, this home presents an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to renovate and make it their own. Whether you're after a weekend getaway or a more permanent residence, this property combines the charm of yesteryear with the potential to create something truly special.
